

My Bias Check-In

Take a few moments to assess your own attitudes toward individuals with substance use disorder

1. What words or emotions come to mind when you think about substance use?
2. How might these thoughts affect your interactions with patients or colleagues?
3. How can you challenge these biases in yourself and your workplace?
4. What new perspective have you gained through SUD education?